

Not all super Heroes Have capes

It was a bright, sunny afternoon, a family of three decided to go to the park because they thought it was the perfect weather for a family day out. Inside the park, there were a variety of bright, colourful plants and the trees were tall. It was summer time, so the park was full of crowds of people having picnics and eating ice-creams.

The family brought their dog with them too. His name was Rex, he was brown, with a spiky collar and his job was to protect Leah if she had got in any trouble. The little girl, who had beautiful, long hair and sapphire, blue eyes was named Leah. Once they reached the Park, the little girl followed a beautiful, white butterfly that was going the opposite direction as the Parents were. It took a very, VERY long time before the parents notice.

Suddenly noticing that their child has gone, the parents worryingly called the Police as fast as they could. The Police searched as hard as they could. To help the parents find their child they put long, white sheets of paper showing the girls beautiful face on a wall so if anyone recognised her face, they could bring her to the Police. Sadly, the investigation failed and they could not find the child. The parents felt heart broken, as their first child had ran away from them...

Meanwhile, Rex and Leah find them self IN BIG, BIG TROUBLE. Leah realized that a group of fiendish men were about to kidnap her. Luckily, she had her dog Rex.

A few seconds later, the men suspiciously came towards Rex and Leah. Suddenly.... OUCH! The leader of the group of men was bleeding and had teeth marks all over him! Rex had viciously bit the man because he was about to kidnap Leah. He ran away as quick as a flash!

“RUN AWAY!” Shouted one of the men.

The parents felt heartbroken, powerless, like they could not do anything anymore. The Police searched for DAYS but then again, FAILED. Days passed.

Finally, a kind-hearted person found Leah hidden in the park and asked them where they lived. She took them to the car, drove them to their house and then knocked.

“Who’s there?” asked the Mom.

Rex, Leah and their family were finally reunited after years of waiting thanks to that lady that helped them. Leah had waited for days for this to happen!

A few years later, they went to a restaurant and Leah clumsily bumped into the lady that helped them years ago.

“Its you!” shouted the lady.

“Oh yes, it’s you, you helped me and Rex a few years ago.” replied Leah.

“By the way, you should watch where you go.” spoke the lady.

“Thank you for reminding me, I’m very clumsy. Answered Leah.

“Your welcome dear, I have to go now I have something to do .” Told the lady. And she wandered off...

That’s strange thought Leah.

When they finished eating, they paid for the food at the restaurant, got in the car and drove away.

During the night , Dad forgot to lock the door. When it was night we changed and went too bed. But, a robber planned to rob our house and did. Rex stepped out, bit him!

Angrily, Dad took off the robbers mask and realized it was the lady that Helped Leah!

She looked nice on the outside, but in the inside, she was a mean, cruel lady that hated children and had escaped from prison.

As quick as a flash, Dad called the police and the Lady went to prison for a long time. Dad and Rex were like super heroes, so remember, not all super heroes have capes.

Alexa Soller (y4)